

Washington State Women's Golf Association (WSWGA) –

Membership in the association may be held by private clubs in the state who maintain an 18-hole course. WSWGGA provides an opportunity to play many different private courses. Some of the various tournaments are: WSWGGA Championship; WSWGGA Senior Championship; and others. Many courses and clubs have invitation events like the OC&GC Women's Invitational which will be held Thursday and Friday, June 16 and 17. They usually will send fliers out telling other clubs when and what is happening. Indian Summer, Kitsap and others usually have one. We will post these in the Women's locker room at the club.

Always make a total effort, even when the odds are against you

Pacific Northwest Golf Association (PNGA) has decided to limit their championship fields to 13 or less handicaps. (Their website is THEPNGA.ORG). Lynda Adams of our club has more information if you are interested.)

Washington State Golf Association (WAgolf) has events for men and women. There are multiple opportunities to enter fun and serious competition put on by WAgolf. For questions, go online to the wsga.org or call 1-800-643-6410.

Team – Team is a monthly tournament played among six private clubs – Olympia, Tacoma, Indian Summer, Kitsap, Canterwood and Fircrest. Play is Match play, not Stroke play. Each team from the clubs that participate has eight players and two alternates. Players must be placed on the team in handicap order. Some of the rules are that each member must have a current handicap of at least five scores posted at her home club within the last 12 months; each member must post at least ten scores a year; maximum converted slope handicap is 25 and anyone having a higher handicap must sacrifice the required strokes; and player must be a golf member of their club.
